New York City.

Attention: Mr. Sydney P. Noe, Sec'y.

Dear Mr. Noe:

I had planned on stopping at your place when I was in New York last week but other matters prevented.

I wished to inquire particularly as to a list of reliable dealers who can supply Continental and Colonial paper money.

I have a collection of United States coins and have all of the Continental Currency except four pieces; namely:

5/20 ~~to~~ 1777 - $4, $6, and $7.
9/28 ~~to~~ 1778 - $6.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. McVitty:

Your letter to Mr. Noe has been turned over to me for reply. Nearly all of the coin dealers handle paper money. I am enclosing a list of dealers and besides the two under the head of "Paper Money" Wayte Raymond and Rudolph Kohler keep a fairly good supply of this.

Very truly yours,
